Safety Team

To ensure our safety, certified lifeguards Andrew Antonelli, Ailish Donoho, Liane Chatuel, and Tristin Gouveia all volunteer to overlook and oversee all water activity in the case of an emergency and each have their lifeguard certifications in which they can efficiently perform CPR if necessary. Liane Chatuel also will have access to a telephone in the case in which an ambulance must be called for. For the scene in which our victim drowns, we are ensuring the actor we are using has their lifeguard certification and can therefore swim.
